BENEFICE LUNCH

at the Wentworth Arms at 12 noon on Thursday 28th March. Please let Helen Morgan (692157) or Adrian (07870 591142) know if you plan to attend. Menu out soon.

It's a lovely occasion. Why not join in for good food and good company.

The Ryedale Free Fridge is open at the Wesley Centre in Saville Street and it's available to anyone.
It's a way to pass on unsaleable but still edible foodstuffs and reduces food waste. They are on Facebook for more information.

REMINDER: Next Saturday 23rd March for "Talking Jesus" training at Manor CE Academy, Poppleton, York.
A valuable opportunity to develop confidence in sharing our faith. The day is to be led by Rachel Jordan-Wolf, the National Mission & Evangelism Adviser for the C of E.

MOTHERING SUNDAY

There will be a special,
All Age service on Sunday 31st March at the usual time of 9.30 am to mark Mothering Sunday.

Host Lent Appeal

Volunteers needed to offer hospitality for one day, or three days and two nights over a weekend to international students. Web site: www.hostuk.org or call 020 7739
6292 for more information.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

Saturday 13th April. There will be an Easter craft stall in church, along with a cake stall and one selling bric-a-brac to raise funds for St Michael's. If you can help on a stall on the day, please offer your services to Adrian or Romey.
We shall need cakes to sell, of course, so any offers of baking will be grateffully received and there's time to ransack your cupboards to search out saleable bric-a-brac, unwanted Christmas gifts and the like.

Collect

Almighty God,
you show to those who are in error the light of your truth, that they may return to the way of righteousness:
grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same;
through our Lord Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God, you see that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves: keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls;
that we may be defended from all adversities.
which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts, which may assault and hurt the soul;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A reading from the book of Genesis

The word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, 'Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.' But Abram said, 'O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?' And Abram said, 'You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.' But the word of the LORD came to him, 'This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.' He brought him outside and said, 'Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' Then he said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.' And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness. Then he said to him, 'I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess.' But he said, 'O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?' He said to him, 'Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.' He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two. And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away. As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him. When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire-pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, 'To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates.'

Genesis 15.1-12, 17-18

Choir Anthem: A metrical version of Psalm 27 by T. Dudley-Smith

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians

Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. Philippians 3.17-4.1

Hear the Gospel of our Lord according to Luke

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, 'Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.' He said to them, 'Go and tell that fox for me, "Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. those who are sent to it! ! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord."'

Luke 13. 31-35
