DIARY JOTTINGS

I write this in the second week of May, having witnessed people de-icing their cars as I left the house at 6.50 this morning! Hopefully by the time you read this issue of the Diary, the weather will have taken a turn for the better.

Whatever the case, it's an incredible time of the year as God's creation, once again, awakens from its winter slumbers. In the Benefice there are several events planned for June that chime with the coming of summer and also with Ascension tide with which the month starts.

"Thy Kingdom Come" is a series of events and activities from 30 May to 9 June, arranged in association with St. Peter's, Norton, to mark the Ascension; the return of our Lord to heaven following His resurrection. Further details in the diary.

On Saturday 15 June we have a sandwich and scone lunch at St. Michael's in aid of the Children's Society. This will run from 11.00am as part of the Coffee Stop. This is for raising funds as well as collecting in the house boxes. Trish Atkinson asks the folk who have house boxes to let her have them on the day or even beforehand.

She would also like a couple of people to help her count the money in the boxes on the Saturday afternoon or sometime during the following week.

The last Saturday of the month (29 June) sees St. Mary's Garden Fete at the Rugby Club. The fun gets underway at 2.00pm.

To conclude, I cannot finish without sharing some thoughts from the Benefice weekend away of 11/12 May. The theme was "I have something to say...". How do we share the Good News? I am sure you will hear more about this later.

But to start with here are three poems written as a group activity at the end of the event which I think speak for themselves.

“I have something to say...”.

How do we share the Good News?

The Lord is my saviour, father, friend, judge,
He guides me along a pathway of love,
The morning star reflects His majesty,
He is the guardian of my soul,
Holding me in His loving arms.

The Lord is my “garden” of life,
The Lord is my rock and security, my world, my universe,
The Lord is my father and king,
He is the creator of all, yet cherishes me most,
The Lord is so much more than words,
that showers me with riches and shall never forsake me,

The Lord is my guide, a lamp to my feet,
My shelter, protector, redeemer,
The Lord is caring, giving,
My comfort, my companion,
