

are possible.' Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age –houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields – but with persecutions – and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.' Mark 10. 17-31

David Campion kindly sends us an interesting quote from "An Inspector Calls" by J B Priestley: "We don't live alone. We are members of one body. We are responsible for each other. And I tell you that the time will soon come when, if men will not learn that lesson, then they will be taught it in fire and blood and anguish". The play was set in 1912.

THANK YOU to all concerned with the harvest decorations and the actual service. It had a real family feel about it and was appreciated by many in the congregation. We raised just over £200 for USPG. All the donated food was taken to the Free Fridge on Monday morning. Our Coffee Stop on November 6th will hopefully raise more funds for USPG's Garden Appeal. Connie

CHURCH SERVICE DUTIES

The current duty list finishes at the end of October, so I need to organise a list for the period from 1st November until the end of February 2022.

I assume that all those currently on the lists are willing to continue, but there may be some who would like to help again and indeed others, who have never been on the list, who would like to read, lead intercessions or welcome people to the services. Please let me know if there is something you would like to do. Let me know by 13th October any dates when you are not available, please. Many thanks to you all for your help. Date for your diary:

An Iona-Style Service on the Feast of St Luke. Sunday 17th October at 4pm in St Michael's church. All welcome.

St Michael's Church, Malton

The Church in the Market Place

We are a church, who invites and welcomes others, to journey together, growing in our love of Christ and deepening our relationship with Him.

10th
October
2021

Welcome to our Parish Communion service in church. If you are not able to attend in person, the service will be transmitted by Zoom. You will need this software installed and working on a tablet or a PC with camera and mic. You will receive a link to the service by email each week and the service commences at 9.30 am.

FACE COVERINGS are no longer obligatory, (but feel free to continue wearing) and we are now allowed to sing.

Collect

O God, forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you; mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy and blessed God, you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son and filled us with your Holy Spirit: may we honour you, not only with our lips but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Nineteenth
Sunday
after Trinity

EXHIBITION OF CHILDHOOD TOYS in St Michael's church

Planning under way for the weekend of 4th & 5th December. If I haven't already asked you, and you have some treasured toys tucked away that you would be willing to exhibit, please let me know. The older the better and ideally with a story attached. Even better if you can find a photo of you or a family member playing with the toy to put on display. Also, we can scan the photo and make a film show to run during the event. Some very interesting items already offered. Anyone remember Gonks? Helen Shaw (01653) 692149

READINGS FOR THE NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

A reading from the book of Amos

Seek the LORD and live, or he will break out against the house of Joseph like fire, and it will devour Bethel, with no one to quench it. Ah, you that turn justice to wormwood, and bring righteousness to the ground! They hate the one who re-proves in the gate, and they abhor the one who speaks the truth. Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take from them levies of grain, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not live in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine. For I know how many are your transgressions, and how great are your sins – you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and push aside the needy in the gate. Therefore the prudent will keep silent in such a time; for it is an evil time. Seek good and not evil, that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, just as you have said. Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph. Amos 5. 6-7, 10-15

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Hebrews

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Hebrews 4. 12-16

Hear the Gospel of our Lord according to Mark

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother." He said to Jesus, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things
