HELP PLEASE: another gardener is needed, to take on the area along the north side of church, from the grass down to the bins. This part of the garden is looking very scruffy at present and needs some TLC. Energetic and youngish person needed to cut grass, trim holly trees, weed and sweep up. If you can help, please have a word with Rosie Miller or one of the Wardens.

ZOOM: Please note that Parish Communion next Sunday (19th June) will not be broadcast on Zoom as none of the Tech Team are available

Sunday Reflection: Every week, the Diocese of York offers a new reflection and prayer resource on vimeo.com/dioceseforyork This Sunday's reflection is with the Bishop of Selby, Dr John Thomson.

The Children's Society: If you haven't yet brought your collection box into church please bring it as soon as possible so Trish can count up and send off the money. Thank you.

Last Sunday we sang "Come down O love divine" and the words were written by Bianco da Siena, who died in 1399 or 1434, depending on the source. It is fascinating to think that we regularly sing a hymn composed by someone who died so long ago. Who was Bianco da Siena? It seems little is known about this wandering, Italian lay brother. He is thought to have been born around 1350 and his death was recorded in Venice. Originally a wool worker in Siena, he joined a brotherhood vowed to live a life of poverty and penance. He wrote many poems on various religious themes, which were very popular in the medieval period. An English translation was shown to Ralph Vaughan Williams, who composed the tune in 1905. The tune is named Down Ampney after the village where Williams was born.

PLEASE PRAY for the Start course beginning tomorrow evening in St Michael's. Also for the 15 new priests being ordained in the Diocese over this weekend.

TRINITY
SUNDAY

St Michael's Church, Malton

The Church in the Market Place

*We are a church, who invites and welcomes others,
to journey together, growing in our love of Christ
and deepening our relationship with Him.*

Welcome to our service today

We welcome to Communion all baptized Christians. Coffee is served after the Parish Communion service; please stay for this and, if you are new to St Michael's, make yourself known to us.

FACE COVERINGS: are no longer obligatory.
It is now a matter of personal choice.

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
you have given us your servants grace,
by the confession of a true faith,
to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship
the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith,
that we may evermore be defended
from all adversities;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God,
now and for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty and eternal God,
you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love:
hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you
in all your ways and evermore rejoice
in your eternal glory,
who are three Persons yet one God,
now and for ever.

TRINITY SUNDAY

A reading from the book of Proverbs

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: 'To you, O people, call, and my cry is to all that live. The LORD created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth – when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Proverbs 8.1-4, 22-31

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Romans 5. 1-5

Hear the Gospel of our Lord according to John

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

John 16. 12-15
