If any town refuses to accept you or its people refuse to listen to you, then leave that town. Shake its dust off your feet. This will be a warning to them.” The followers went out and preached to the people to change their hearts and lives. The followers forced many demons out and poured olive oil on many sick people and healed them. Mark 6b-13

The Collection Plate is no longer passed around during the service and, if you are not signed up to the Parish Giving Scheme, you may put your offering in the plate at the back of church as you enter or in the second plate as you leave.

Suspension of our Patron’s rights of presentation: there is a public notice on the church door throughout Sunday to inform that the Bishop of Selby has decided to suspend our Patron’s rights of presentation to the benefice for a period of up to three years. If, however, the Bishop decides to appoint a priest in charge to our benefice during the period of suspension, he and the Archdeacon, will involve our Patron, as well as our parishes. It is understood that the suspension is a formality to allow the Diocese to work on selling the Vicarage on The Mount and replacing it with a more suitable and economical property.

Readings for the Sixth Sunday after Trinity

A reading from the book of the Prophet Ezekiel

The heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. When I saw this, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking. He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you. And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day. The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them. Ezekiel 2. 1-5

A reading from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows – was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong. 12. 2-20

Hear the Gospel of our Lord, according to Mark

Then Jesus went to other villages in that area and taught. He called the twelve followers together and sent them out in groups of two. He gave them authority over evil spirits. This is what Jesus told them: "Take nothing for your trip except a walking stick. Take no bread, no bag, and
