

If you have signed up to the Parish Giving Scheme, you may have recently received a message from your bank about a new Direct Debit that has been set up under the name 'PGS'. This is a legitimate part of the Parish Giving Scheme digital transformation process.

What you need to know:

This Direct Debit has been set up correctly and it will appear under the name 'PGS' in the future rather than 'Parish Giving Scheme'

At this stage, the Direct Debit will show no value – this is normal and will change soon. Different banks are notifying their customers in alternative ways. For example, Barclays have sent letters to their givers, other banks may have chosen to use online banking alerts

We understand that the unfamiliar name may raise concerns about whether this is a scam. Please be assured that this change is genuine and part of our planned improvements

Next steps

You don't need to take any action - your gift will continue as usual, and the first collection is due on 3 November, with the collection date remaining the first working day of each month.

If you think you may have cancelled your Direct Debit by mistake, please don't worry. Just get in touch with us after 30 October, and we'll help you get set up again. You can contact us by phone on 0333 002 1260 or via email: info@parishgiving.org.uk.

The new, improved Parish Giving Scheme website went live on Thursday 30th.

Message from Cathy Harrison:

on 27th September, my friend and I hosted a MacMillan coffee morning at Terrington Village Hall. On the day, we raised £809.85 but alongside that we raised £640 from the internet Go Fund Me. This brings the total to £1449, 85, which overwhelmed us. Many thanks to those who contributed. Catherine Harrison & Julie Banks

Readings for All Saints

A reading from the book of Daniel

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So, he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever – for ever and ever.'

Daniel 7. 1-3, 15-18

A reading from the letter to the Ephesians

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 1. 11-23

Hear the Gospel of our Lord, according to Luke

I say to you who are listening to me, love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you. Ask God to bless those who say bad things to you. Pray for those who are cruel to you. If anyone slaps you on one cheek, let him slap the other cheek too. If someone takes your coat, do not stop him from taking your shirt. Give to everyone who asks you. When a person takes something that is yours, don't ask for it back. Do for other people what you want them to do for you.

Luke 6. 27-31
